

Adeela Crown Facial Treatments

Hyper-Customised Skin Engineering

Crowning Glowry™

80 minutes — $795

A turbo-charged, results-driven facial designed to revive tired skin and restore luminous vitality. Up to six multi-modal skin technologies are layered with Adeela Crown's signature SkinDance™ sculpting massage to oxygenate, contour and awaken the skin's natural regenerative rhythm.

Deep hydration, refined texture and radiant clarity reveal a complexion that looks instantly refreshed, plump and lit from within.

No Derma Drama™

90 minutes — $895

Adeela Crown's cult collagen induction facial, designed to visibly refine, strengthen and rejuvenate the skin. Precision skin-renewal technology is combined with ultrasound infusion, growth factors, LED therapy and freeze-dried collagen delivery to support the skin's natural repair process.

Texture appears smoother, tone more even and elasticity visibly restored — delivering powerful rejuvenation through Adeela's signature hyper-customised approach.

Lift Off™

105 minutes — $995

A high-performance sculpting facial designed to energise, contour and visibly lift the skin.

Acoustic Wave Therapy paired with exosome and peptide delivery stimulates skin vitality and supports collagen renewal, while precision-depth thermal energy technology encourages deeper structural firmness. Adeela Crown's signature SkinDance™ facial choreography enhances circulation and lymphatic drainage, refining facial contours and restoring youthful tone.

The result: skin that appears lifted, hydrated and radiantly energised — with no downtime.

UHD Glow™

120 minutes — $1250

150 minutes — $1500

Adeela Crown's most advanced and entirely hyper-customised facial experience.

Designed for red carpet, camera and high-definition life, this extended treatment draws from Adeela's full repertoire of regenerative technologies — including collagen-supporting modalities, advanced infusion techniques, acoustic wave stimulation and her renowned SkinDance™ sculpting methodology.

With unhurried time for deeper skin analysis and precision layering of technologies, UHD Glow™ becomes a truly personal skin journey, restoring vitality, clarity and refined structure. The result is a complexion of exceptional luminosity, tone and sculpted vitality — the signature Adeela Crown glow.

Every treatment begins with an in-depth consultation and is entirely hyper-customised using Adeela Crown's curated selection of advanced skin technologies and regenerative skincare.
