ABOUT ADEELA CROWN

Dubbed “The Skin Engineer”, the Hollywood Film Facialist counts a number of A-List celebrities from the world of film, fashion & music among her clientele. Being one of the most recognized authorities and voices in beauty & skincare, Adeela is also a facialist journalist hybrid and writes about skin issues, insights, innovations & recommendations in her regular Ask Adeela beauty & lifestyle column in Financial Times How to Spend It. Adeela Crown advocates investing in sophisticated, results-driven skin therapies.

Her skin engineering mantra is simple.
INTELLIGENT PRODUCTS & THERAPIES + SKIN HEALTH EDUCATION = PERFECTLY ENGINEERED SKIN

Widely acclaimed in press, Adeela Crown is known for her hands and considered a master of her craft. Her intelligently structured treatments are a unique combination of her facial massage technique Skindance™, sophisticated devices and transformative ingredients, all hyper-customised to each individual's needs. With international residencies spanning London, New York, Los Angeles and the Maldives, the power of Adeela's individualised treatments can only truly be experienced through her trademarked, global techniques, including; Crowning Glowry™, No Derma Drama™, Lift Off™.

CROWNING GLOWRY™

80 minutes • $850

A turbo-charged, results-driven facial designed to revive tired skin and restore luminous vitality. Up to six multi-modal skin technologies are layered with Adeela Crown's signature SkinDance™ sculpting massage to oxygenate, contour and awaken the skin's natural regenerative rhythm.

Deep hydration, refined texture and radiant clarity reveal a complexion that looks instantly refreshed, plump and lit from within.

An additional discretionary 18% gratuity will be added to the cost of the service.

NO DERMA DRAMA™

90 minutes • $950

Adeela Crown's cult collagen induction facial, designed to visibly refine, strengthen and rejuvenate the skin. Precision skin-renewal technology is combined with ultrasound infusion, growth factors, LED therapy and freeze-dried collagen delivery to support the skin's natural repair process.

Texture appears smoother, tone more even and elasticity visibly restored – delivering powerful rejuvenation through Adeela's signature hyper-customised approach.

An additional discretionary 18% gratuity will be added to the cost of the service.

LIFT OFF™

105 minutes • $1,150

A high-performance sculpting facial designed to energise, contour and visibly lift the skin.

Acoustic Wave Therapy paired with exosome and peptide delivery stimulates skin vitality and supports collagen renewal, while precision-depth thermal energy technology encourages deeper structural firmness. Adeela Crown's signature SkinDance™ facial choreography enhances circulation and lymphatic drainage, refining facial contours and restoring youthful tone.

The result: skin that appears lifted, hydrated and radiantly energised – with no downtime.

An additional discretionary 18% gratuity will be added to the cost of the service.

UHD GLOW™

120 minutes / 150 minutes • $1,450 / $1,750

Adeela Crown's most advanced and entirely hyper-customised facial experience. Designed for red carpet, camera and high-definition life, this extended treatment draws from Adeela's full repertoire of regenerative technologies – including collagen-supporting modalities, advanced infusion techniques, acoustic wave stimulation and her renowned SkinDance™ sculpting methodology.

With unhurried time for deeper skin analysis and precision layering of technologies, UHD Glow™ becomes a truly personal skin journey, restoring vitality, clarity and refined structure. The result is a complexion of exceptional luminosity, tone and sculpted vitality – the signature Adeela Crown glow.

An additional discretionary 18% gratuity will be added to the cost of the service.
