In 1811, a year after their wedding in Epernay, young lovers Pierre-Nicolas Perrier and Rose-Adélaïde Jouët founded Maison Perrier-Jouët together. Inspired by their shared passion for nature and art, they created a boutique house renowned for its floral, elegant Champagnes that capture the pure expression of Chardonnay.

The iconic anemone adorned Belle Epoque bottle was designed by leading Art Nouveau artist Emile Galle in 1902, who was commissioned to design four magnums for the Maison. Today, that same spirit of romance and craftsmanship lives on — each bottle a celebration of beauty, creativity, and enduring love.
