

THE EMORY

LONDON

GUEST DIRECTORY

The Emory is a living landmark: a modern masterwork by Richard Rogers and Ivan Harbour. The hotel is the essence of low-key luxury and modernist quietude. All rooms are suites and studios, all views are floor-to-ceiling with sweeping views of the city. While our offering is unparalleled, our luxuries are understated; this is a place for those who value the commodity of time.

We look forward to having you to stay with us whilst in London. Here you will find information about services we provide but if you need anything else, please just let us know.
